After April 30, 2016: $250 per person

Registration for attendees, sponsors and exhibitors is now open for the 2016 UGIM Symposium.

Sunday, June 12:
- Bootie Camp (operations, life safety, soft cleanroom management for new facility managers)
- Reception and station-by-station tours with peers from the Utah Nanofab

Monday, June 13:
- Symposium, exhibition, topical working lunch, poster session of all participating cleanroom facilities
- Dinner and keynote at IMFT (12" DRAM fab), evening excursion train in Wasatch mountain canyons

Tuesday, June 14:
- Papers, panels, exhibition, role-based working lunch, poster session of all participating cleanroom facilities
- Tram ride to closing banquet at Snowbird mountain peak

Wednesday, June 15:
- Additional tours. Interact with the local resident experts on topics and questions of interest to you
- Optional detailed technical workshops and training sessions (both academic and supplier presentations)

CALL FOR WORKSHOP SPONSORSHIP & PARTICIPATION IS OPEN:
The workshops will fill the role of highly detailed (niche) technical topics.

CALL FOR PAPERS TO OPEN IN DECEMBER:
Stay tuned for first call for papers. The call for papers will focus on requests for speakers to address broad topics of general interest.

CALL FOR POSTERS TO OPEN IN DECEMBER:
The poster session will replace the papers that describe individual labs, and allow all to submit a poster presentation describing their cleanroom facility. This will enable the ever enlarging community of cleanroom administrators to "put a face and a name with a facility" and learn more about your capabilities and also opportunities for collaboration. We'll send a template so that we collect the same info from each facility. Look for this in the coming weeks.
